Scheduled Multi-Table Poker Tournaments

Registration for multi-table poker tournaments is open until the tournament's posted start time.

Once registered for an event, players may unregister at any time up until 15 minutes prior to the event's posted starting time, and receive a refund of any Tournament Points or Play Chips used to register.

Tournament registration must meet the minimum requirement for that event or the tournament will not run, in which case all Tournament Points and/or Play Chips used to buy in will be returned to the players' accounts.

Players are seated at random. Seat changes are not allowed.

All players begin with equal chip amounts.

The blinds will increase according to the multi-table tournament structures posted on www.clububt.com. The button is randomly assigned to a player at the table. There is a deal for the button at the start of the tournament; high card plays the button for the first hand.

Tournaments are played until one player has all the chips.

Players who do not show up for their event will either be eliminated or blinded off until they arrive. Players have 10 minutes to arrive before they are eliminated from the event.

During the tournament, information about when the next break will occur will be displayed in the lower left of the table as well as in the Tournament Lobby.

As a tournament progresses the tournament software will combine tables and try to maintain an equal number of players at all remaining tables. Players will see a note in the lower left of the table telling them that tables are being consolidated.

If a player needs to be moved to maintain balance the
